

Grace Livingston Hill Collection, No. 1: According to the Pattern / An Unwilling Guest / The Esselstynes

For generations, Grace Livingston Hill has been one of the most popular authors of inspirational romance. Find out for yourself why her stories continue to captivate readers of all ages. Grace Livingston Hill (1865-1947) has long been a favorite of readers who enjoy Christian fiction. Her books, generally set in the early 1900s, portray eternal truths in a way that readers of any age will enjoy. Well researched and historically accurate, Mrs. Hill's books are regarded as touchstones of the era. Readers can visualize with little difficulty the many residences, both grand and simple, the manners of the day, the appropriate costumes and the quality of life. Indeed, the deft blending of history, romance, and Christian faith is the touchstone of Grace Livingston Hill.
