

Cuprins de depresie in urma divortului si a pierderii copilului pe care-l credea fiul sau, ingrozit ca acesta l-ar putea uita, taximetristul Dave Rudman, eroul romanului Cartea lui Dave (2006), incepe sa-si astearna pe hirtie nemulțumirile legate de viata, de relatiile interumane, de societate si religie. Rezultatul este un amestec tulburator de satira si fantastic, de umor si cinism, de imagini suprapuse ale unui prezent afectat de un misterios mal de siecle si ale unui viitor aberant si distopic. Cartea este gasita intr-un viitor postapocaliptic si transformata in Evanghelia unei noi credinte, Davinitatea. Jargonul taximetristilor devine acum limbaj sacru, insemnele breslei devin simboluri religioase, iar lumea se reinventeaza dupa Poruncile lui Dave. In dialogul permanent dintre trecut si viitor, dintre realitate si halucinatie, una dintre constante este imaginea vie a unei Londre pe care poti fie s-o iubesti, fie s-o urasti, dar in fata careia, cu siguranta, nu poti ramine indiferent. Remarcabila... Cartea lui Dave pare sa vorbeasca despre nihilismul inspaimintator al unei lumi lipsite de un sens transcendent si despre tensiunile si contradictiile personalitatii religioase. (Weekly Standard) Will Self dovedeste un talent fara margini in a incrucisa un roman fantastic cu o satira acida a moravurilor contemporane, creind un monstru minunat al viitorului care se hraneste din prezentul nevrotic si din propriii parinti.
