

Un nativo de la cordillera oriental de los Carpatos, Yanko Goorall, sobrevive al hundimiento de un buque al que ha sido enrolado por la fuerza y que ha naufragado en la costa de Eastbay. Desesperado, llega al valle de Colebrook buscando ayuda pero los habitantes del pueblo, gente hurana e ignorante, desconfian de un hombre desalinado y que no habla su idioma. El hambre, la sed, el frio y el miedo hacen que Yanko casi enloquezca, pero Amy Foster aparecera para brindarle su bondad. Enamorada, acepta casarse con el y emprenden una vida juntos pero las habladurias y el desconocimiento del origen de su marido haran mella en el debil caracter de Amy.
