

An Outpost of Progress (Annotated)

An Outpost of Progress is one of the best-known novellas written by Joseph Conrad (1857-1924). First published in 1897, the tale is centered around a trade outpost in Africa and the two European men who work there and go mad in that heart of darkness. This edition is enriched with two other Conrads texts: A Personal Record, an autobiographical work written in 1912, and Notes on My Books, a 1920 essay on his writings.
