

In Happy Valley

Preaching at the open-air meeting-house was just over and the citizens of Happy Valley were pouring out of the benched enclosure within living walls of rhododendron. Men, women, children, babes in arms mounted horse or mule or strolled in family groups homeward up or down the dusty road. Youths and maids paired off, dallying behind. Emerged last one rich, dark, buxom girl alone. Twenty yards down the road two young mountaineers were squatted in the shade whittling, and to one she nodded. The other was a strangerone Jay Dawnand the stare he gave her was not only bold but impudent. Whos goin home with that gal? she heard him ask. Nobody, was the answer; that gal alays goes home alone. She heard his snort of incredulity.
