

The Knot - Black Cat Vol. 3 - A Salem Massachusetts Mini Mystery

Kathy Taylor was settling into her life as a private investigator in Salem, Massachusetts. Her new kitten, Josephine, found delight in pouncing on anything that moved. But when a mugger decides to pounce on a local newlywed, Kathy is called in to lend a hand. The Knot is the third entry in the Salem Massachusetts Mini Mystery series. The start of this series is The Lucky Cat. These short stories will be written and loaded one a day from October 1 through October 31, 2014. You can read them one-by-one if you wish, or you can read them bundled into collections. All authors proceeds from this series benefit battered womens shelters. Lisa has lived in scenic Massachusetts since 1986, with only two brief forays out of state. One of Lisas ancestors was Ann Foster, who died during the Salem Witch Trials. Ann Foster was a grandmother by that time and sacrificed herself to protect her daughter and granddaughter. Ann had been born in England, came over in 1635, and was 75 by the time of the trials. Salem reached its dark depths during those trials from 1692-1693 - but since then has healed, blossomed, and shines. It now features the amazing Peabody Essex Museum, a plethora of gorgeous historic architecture, and a beautiful coastline. Its well worth a visit. If you cant go in person, take a virtual trip through Lisas first-hand descriptions!
