Beijing 1:36,300 Tourist Map Beijing's central districts on a medium-sized street plan (sheet size 88 x 58 cm / 34.5 x 23 in) highlighting main sights and various facilities, from a Hong-Kong based map publisher. The map features a very neat, but crisp and easy to read chinese-style cartography with pictograms for major places of interest, public buldings, etc. Names of main streets, parks and most of the sights and facilities are shown in both Latin and Chinese script; smaller streets are only in Chinese. Railways with stations, bus and trolleybus routes with stops and termini, Metro lines and stations as well as taxi stands are clearly marked. Indicated are selected restaurants, hotels and hostels, shopping zones, theatres, cinemas, hospitals and even public toilets in parks. Eight inset maps present main points of interet at better scale: Forbidden City; Ming Tombs; Temple of Heaven; ZOO; Summer Palace (Yihe Yuan); Taoranting Park; Bei Hai Lake & Park; and Xiangshan Park (Fragrant Hills). On reverse is a description (in Chinese and English) of 12 major points of interest plus listings of selected accommodation, museums, universities, recreation facilities, etc.
