

THE FOUR MILLION (non illustrated)

The Four Million is the second book written by O. Henry while he served time for embezzlement in a penitentiary in Ohio. The book is a series of short stories which take place in New York City in the early years of the 20th century and are representative of the surprise endings that popularized O. Henry's work. They also capture his use of coincidence or chance to create humor in the story. O. Henry wrote about ordinary people in everyday circumstances. He is quoted as once saying, There are stories in everything. I've got some of my best yarns from park benches, lampposts and newspaper stands. Tobins Palm -- The Gift of the Magi -- A Cosmopolite in a Cafe -- Between Rounds -- The Skylight Room -- A Service of Love -- The Coming-Out of Maggie -- Man About Town -- The Cop and the Anthem -- An Adjustment of Nature -- Memoirs of a Yellow Dog -- The Love-Philtre of Ikey Schoenstein -- Mammon and the Archer -- Springtime a la Cart -- The Green Door -- From the Cabbys Seat -- An Unfinished Story -- The Caliph, Cupid and the Clock -- Sisters of the Golden Circle -- The Romance of a Busy Broker -- After Twenty Years -- Lost on Dress Parade -- By Courier -- The Furnished Room -- The Brief Debut of Tildy. (non illustrated)
