

Chasing the wind

Darnel, a young boy living in a Jamaican ghetto, is forced to sell drugs to survive...except he is bad at it. After giving away the bag of cocaine he was to sell, Darnel is determined to find the money even if he must steal. But his luck has run out and the pickings are slim, until he breaks into a house and finds a violin and his life changed forever. Chasing the wind is a short story about hidden talents and the good things that can happen to good people; though sometimes too late. Its about what can be if children are given the chance to explore.
