

Elegy for Piano and Three Voices

Stacey's mother has disappeared. Alzheimers has taken her and left a shell. Except, one night, Stacey a composer who has given up everything to care for her mother can't take it any more. She sits at the piano and plays Bach. The music reveals amazing things, things Stacey does not expect, things she cannot hope for, things she knows will soon vanish forever. Bestselling writer Kristine Kathryn Rusch has published fiction in every genre. She has been nominated for awards in all those genres as well. She is best known for her science fiction and fantasy, although her mainstream novel Hitler's Angel, just appeared in the United Kingdom to great critical acclaim. She has also published award-winning mystery novels under the name Kris Nelscott. Her short fiction has appeared in more than twenty best-of-the-year volumes.
