

Atlantic Canada (Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, Prince Edward Island, Newfoundland and Labrador) can be a phenomenal adventure: kayaking, whale-watching, skiing, and dogsledding are just a few of the ways to dive in headfirst. White sandy beaches, lobsters in pot, and cozy inns steeped in history make it easy to have a relaxing interlude, too. Prince Edward Island has uncrowded beaches and the warmest water north of the Carolinas. Newfoundland and Labrador is a world unto itself, where humpback whales feed near and 10,000-year-old icebergs cruise by fishing villages. Our local writers have found the best hotels, restaurants, attractions and activities to make your trip unforgettable.
