

A Family For Christmas

This is the story of Todd 22 years old. When he was a boy he wanted one thing for Christmas, a family. See Todd grew up in an orphanage in North Carolina. When he graduated High School he had to move out and make it on his own. It took four years to make it through Community College. He is in his final term. A writing competition gives him a life line, if he can win the first prize he will get a scholarship to finish his education, and not become homeless. The person that gives out the first prize is named Susan Adams, a famous writer. When she sees him, she thinks he is her younger son that is at the hotel. Todd takes a dna test and has to wait a day for the results. If he is found out to be her Son, will he trust her when he hasnt trusted anyone in his entire life? He becomes friends with Tim, who could be his brother. The night before the big results, they go to a local department store, and buy things to help the children at the Orphanage. It is about to be shut down, before Susan helps them out. Will Todd find out that he is her son or not? Will it even matter? Will a man that tries to hold up Tim, cause Todd to lose everything before he even finds out the truth. To find out the answers to these questions, read the book. 13,000 + words
