

Mask of Fortune

One woman's drive to find success and recognition of her life. Zoe Mellor craved for her mother's love who only had love for her first child, Victor, and she died without Zoe finding out why her mother did not even acknowledge she was ever born. Now motherless at fifteen, Zoe spends her young days looking after her father and adored brothers in Lancashire. She finds she has a talent for painting and art appreciation and her life changes when she starts working for an art gallery. But Victor has other plans for his sister and soon she is dealing with art and sculpture forgeries that makes the family a fortune. Her meteoric rise in the glamorous world of international art brings jealousy and greed. Zoe is now at risk for everything she has always worked for: her reputation and the love and security she had found. ... pacey rags-to-riches story of one woman's struggle to have it all Sunday Express
