

The Mysterious Stranger (Signet classics)

The Mysterious Stranger is an unfinished work and the last novel attempted by the American author Mark Twain. It was worked on periodically from roughly 1890 up until his death in 1910. The body of work is a serious social commentary by Twain addressing his ideas of the Moral Sense and the damned human raceThe other stories in this book are: A Fable, Hunting the Deceitful Turkey and The McWilliamses and the Burglar Alarm
