

My Strongest Weakness (Family by Choice Book 17)

Sometimes its simply too much. How much fight does a person have inside them? How many times can someone be tested? Tommy and Brittany had survived everything life threw at them. They were strongest together and everyone around them knew that. Their pride and joy was their beautiful daughter and watching her thrive was the most important job they could imagine. The threats were all resolved and it was time to simply enjoy life. The trouble begins when life throws them a curve. Suddenly, nothing is certain and the hopes and dreams they had for their future are in question. Brittany is ready to tackle everything and prove, once again, that she and her husband are soulmates. The problem comes when Tommy decides that maybe, hes simply had enough. They have never had to deal with someone giving up. They have never had to look at each other and wonder if the love was still there. Brittany has to face a future where her husband decides he cant do it anymore. And thats just the beginning.
