

Night and Day

Katharine Hilbery is a beautiful and privileged woman, but she is uncertain of her future. Torn between becoming engaged to the oddly prosaic poet William Rodney or pursuing her dangerous attraction to the passionate Ralph Denham. As she struggles with her indecision, the lives of two other women - womens rights activist Mary Datchet and Katharines mother, Margaret, struggling to weave together the documents, events and memories of her own fathers life into a biography - impinge on hers with unexpected and intriguing consequences. Virginia Woolfs second novel is a love story and a social comedy, yet it also subtly undermines these traditions, questioning a womans role and the very nature of experience.
