

Lectures on the Literature of the Age of Elizabeth: And Characters Of; Shakespears (Classic Reprint)

Ealeigh, Drake, Coke, Hooker, and high and more Bounding still, and still more frequent in our mouths Shakespear, Spenser, Sidney, Bacon, Jonson, Beaumont and Fletcher, men whom fame has eternised in her long and lasting scroll, and who, by their words and acts, were benefactors of their country, and ornaments of human nature. Their attainments of different kinds bore the same general stamp, and it was sterling; what they did had the mark of their age and country upon it. Perhaps the genius of Great Britain (if I may so speak without offence or flattery) never shone out fuller or brighter, or looked more like itself, than at this period.
