

Red Gloves (The Samaritans Conspiracy Book 2)

Just as the City of Portland Maine is struck with a horrific crime wave of high school drugs and teenage killings, Lead Detective Priscilla Harris life swirls out of control. A terrible car accident has derailed her sons basketball dreams, so he quits college and turns to methamphetamines to cope. To keep him from backsliding any further, Priscilla spends thousands of dollars on two drug rehab programs, but when the second try fails she doesnt know where to turn. Worse yet, she learns her husband has stolen the remaining $30,000 of her inheritance money to run off with his beautiful, blond secretary. In the midst of it all, a mysterious red-gloved stranger is stalking both Priscilla and her son. Can Priscilla find some way to save her city and her son before more teenage corpses are found stacked like cordwood? In The Santa Shop Tim Greaton showed us the bitterness of despair and the sweet taste of hope. In this second standalone book of The Samaritans Conspiracy he serves up a full, seven-course emotional meal. Lead Detective Priscilla Harris story will drag you through the depths of struggle and despair but not without amazing rewards. One reviewer says, Tim Greatons fans will follow him to Hell in gasoline raincoats.... Youre invited to find out why.
