

The Collected Weird Fiction of Robert W. Chambers (Halcyon Classics)

THE COLLECTED WEIRD FICTION OF ROBERT W. CHAMBERS includes nearly forty short stories and three novels, including his classic collection of weird short stories, THE KING IN YELLOW, in which a play drives all who read it insane. Short Stories THE KING IN YELLOW THE MAKER OF MOONS AND OTHERS THE MYSTERY OF CHOICE A YOUNG MAN IN A HURRY AND OTHER SHORT STORIES POLICE!!! Novels IN SEARCH OF THE UNKNOWN THE GREEN MOUSE THE SLAYER OF SOULS Robert William Chambers (1865-1933) was a native of Brooklyn and educated in Europe. His first published works appeared in 1895, with THE KING IN YELLOW earning him high praise. Other works in the weird genre followed, but none equaled the success of his first effort. By the 1910s, Chambers had largely abandoned weird fiction, turning instead to romance to pay the bills. His weird works were much admired by H.P. Lovecraft and inspired later generations of writers.
