

Rogues Curse (Rogue Prophet Book 1)

2000 years after the Rapture, the world still sucks. Vikardt just wants to die. 2000 years is a long time to live, especially when you're responsible for the greatest disaster in human history. But only the Stone of Rapture can kill him. So when an archeological team recovers the lost talisman, sweet death finally comes within Vikardt's grasp. And a rogue beats him to it. Now the talisman responsible for the infamous Rapture is embedded in Doban's chest. In a desperate gamble, Vikardt manipulates the king into initiating a manhunt for the rogue. Doban must seek protection from the unlikeliest of allies: one, an abused monster with an appetite for human flesh; the other, a woman he once left to die in a tomb. Can they let go of the past long enough to keep Doban alive? Or will Vikardt recover the stone and bring about a second Rapture? Warning: This title contains graphic violence and off-kilter copulation.
