

Shattered: (A Donna Harp Novel) (Volume 1)

BOOK ONE IN THE BESTSELLING DONNA HARP SERIES A KILLER ON THE LOOSE, A VILLAGE TORN BY FEAR AND SUSPICION When the body of a brutally murdered young girl is found, Constable Donna Harp finds herself between a rock and a hard place. Her superior, Sergeant Underwood quickly latches on to the newest resident of Greenville, Jason Denton, an author and former detective, as his prime suspect, though she isn't convinced of his guilt. Over the next couple of days more girls are murdered, and Underwood continues to focus on Jason Denton, leaving Donna worried that he is allowing his prejudice against outsiders to influence the investigation. Things become worse when the friends and relatives of the murdered girls, impatient with the investigation, decide to take matters into their own hands. An attempt on Jason Denton's life, and her superior's increasing antagonism and narrow-mindedness, push Donna into risking her career to ensure everything possible is done to stop the killer before he can strike again. Will the decision she makes prove right, or will it cost her the career she hasn't even begun to build yet?
