

Future History : The 2190 A.D. Edition

FUTURE HISTORY A Dystopian Fantasy by Hugo Gottfried, the 2190 A.D. edition. IN 1776, THE FOUNDERS CREATED THE NATION. IN 1789, THE FRAMERS CREATED THE GOVERNMENT. IN THE 20TH AND 21ST CENTURIES, THE AMERICAN PEOPLE DESTROYED THEIR OWN FREEDOM. IN THE 22ND CENTURY, HUGO GOTTFRIED DISCOVERED HOW AND WHY IT HAPPENED. READ FUTURE HISTORY BY HUGO GOTTFRIED, THE 2190 A.D. EDITION, READ THIS BOOK BEFORE IT IS TOO LATE TO SAVE THE REPUBLIC! By the wonder of reverse tachyon technology, we have been able to retrieve a series of essays on the History of the United States which was published (or will be published) in the year 2190 A.D. The author, Hugo Gottfried, was (will be) the custodian of the abandoned research library on Fifth Avenue in New York City. As he began in the middle of the 22nd century to read the old books down in the dark and dusty nether recesses of the crumbling old building, he slowly came to a startling realization: the economically impoverished, militarily impotent, morally bankrupt, totalitarian America of his era was not the great Republic envisioned by the Founders and created by the Framers. We Americans of the early 21st century need to read Gottfried's reflections very, very, VERY carefully. He explains, from the standpoint of the future, what went wrong in America, when, why, and how. It is not too late to change the course of the river of History! He who has ears to hear, let him hear! (A note on the author: Hugo Gottfried is obviously a pseudonym. The author is a college teacher who holds the rank of associate professor. His field is History. He holds three masters degrees and a doctorate, and has been five times named a Fellow of the National Endowment for the Humanities.)
