

Strip-Tease (Ldp Simenon) (French Edition)

A trente-deux ans, Celita, strip-teaseuse au Monico, a Cannes voit avec anxiété palir son étoile. Son seul espoir: succéder bientôt à Florence, sa patronne, gravement malade, dont elle s'est attachée le mari, Leon, d'une façon qu'elle croit sûre. Mais tout est compromis le jour où Maud, une débutante de dix-neuf ans, ravissante et faussement ingénue, franchit pour la première fois le seuil du Monico. La clientèle s'enthousiasme, et Leon en fait bientôt la vedette du spectacle. Comment une rivalité à la fois professionnelle et amoureuse va se muer en un combat désespéré, ou même le crime est envisageable pour conjurer la déchéance: c'est ce que nous conte, avec une saisissante vérité psychologique et une apparente impassibilité qui ne fait que souligner le drame, le romancier de Lettre à mon juge, le créateur de Maigret.
