

The Golden Key

THE GOLDEN KEY By George MacDonald With Illustrations by Maud Humphrey There was a boy who used to sit in the twilight and listen to his great-aunts stories. She told him that if he could reach the place where the end of the rainbow stands he would find there a golden key. And what is the key for? the boy would ask. What is it the key of? What will it open? That nobody knows, his aunt would reply. Now, all that his great-aunt told the boy about the golden key would have been nonsense, had it not been that their little house stood on the borders of Fairyland. For it is perfectly well known that out of Fairyland nobody ever can find where the rainbow stands. The creature takes such good care of its golden key, always flitting from place to place, lest anyone should find it! But in Fairyland it is quite different.
