

THE GYPSY WAY - PART ONE: RUNNING IN CORRIDORS

It all started in 1985, when I was living in my shabby caravan in my own little corner of rural England. I scraped a living back then breeding chickens, doing odd jobs, and I kept my head down until she came along. All it took was one row with her husband to turn my life upside down and plunge me into a world I had tried to leave behind. All I needed was the truth, but as everyone seemed to be hiding a guilty secret including me it took a long time and a hectic race around England, from Appleby Horse Fair to sunny south Devon, to find it. Desperation drove me on as I tried to stay alive and to protect my friends from a murderous syndicate. They had fists and guns; I had nothing but my wits and my charm to solve the mystery. The odds were against me. It was obvious that sooner or later I would have to do things The Gypsy Way. A story peppered with comedy and romance, with more than its fair share of passion, punch-ups, and rock n roll, this is Gypsy life in rural England in the mid-1980s. And there isn't a crystal ball or fortune-teller in sight!
