

The Jungle (Large Print)

The Jungle a novel written by the American journalist Upton Sinclair in 1906. Following along with a family of Slavic emigrants Sinclair shows the brutality that they are exposed to as they work in the Chicago stockyards. Depicting the absence of social programs, corruption of power and hopelessness of the working class. Exposing the practices of the American meatpacking industry during the early 20th century Sinclairs master piece will haunt you for years.
