

Smear (Hong Kong New Plays Selection 2013)

??????? Commissioned by the Hong Kong Arts Festival. This bilingual edition is in Traditional Chinese and English. Never underestimate the might of a pen, especially one held by a critic. A harsh review puts the reputation of a theater titan at stake. The author is his erstwhile partner. Is it a libel case or a debate about the nature of art? Who is the giant? Who is the dwarf? Can they cut through the webs of human and legal relationships? Smear was created by multi-talented, award-winning playwright Wong Wing-sze. After her much-lauded play The Truth about Lying, about divorce and the law, Wong once again turns the stage into an arena for combat, where irony and intrigue are sharp weapons. Wong Wing-sze graduated from the Hong Kong Academy for Performing Arts, majoring in Acting. She has written 27 stage plays since 2002. For The Truth About Lying, she won Best Script at the 20th Hong Kong Drama Awards, and Best of the Best Theatre Performances award from Hong Kongs Time Out magazine in 2010. With Pang Ho-cheung, she co-wrote the screenplay of Beyond Our Ken, winner of Best Screenplay at the 10th Hong Kong Golden Bauhinia Awards and nominee for Best Original Screenplay at the 42nd Golden Horse Awards. For Radio Television Hong Kong she penned the TV screenplays Family Series, My Fathers Funeral, and Poor Mother Courage, for which she received a Certificate of Merit in the Special Achievement: Writing category at the Chicago International Film Festival. Her latest piece, What is Success, was co-produced with Edward Lam Dance Theatre. Wong is currently pursuing her postgraduate studies in screenwriting.
