

Jonathan Wild (Letras Universales) (Spanish Edition)

Cuando Henry Fielding publica Jonathan Wild en 1743, el autor era ya uno de los hombres de letras mas reconocidos, admirados, odiados y polemicos de su tiempo, a pesar de que su carrera como novelista habia comenzado tan solo dos anos antes. La posterior publicacion de Tom Jones, su obra maestra, consolido a Fielding como uno de los grandes autores de prosa de ficcion de su epoca, convirtiendole en uno de los padres de la novela inglesa del XVIII y de la novela realista europea. El Fielding vividor y optimista que escribio en sus novelas cantos llenos de perspicacia e inteligencia a la alegria de vivir, con una franqueza sexual tachada frecuentemente de inmoral, muestra en Jonathan Wild su vena mas cinica, pesimista e ironica sobre la naturaleza humana. Su mensaje final resuena, desgraciadamente, lleno de vigente actualidad: la satisfaccion de ser grande no emana de los resultados materiales de dicha grandeza, sino del mero orgullo de saberse superior o distinto a los demas.
