

Wander Lust

Part memoir, part philosophy, this charming book of personal travel diaries covers the Earth, revealing the authors wry, witty take on the world as it leads the reader to beautiful, exotic destinations. Trek the Himalayas, ride a Bedu camel, travel with an armed guard, fly first class, eat on the ground and find friends in unlikely places while traveling with a writer through whose humane vision you will see a cherished globe replete with places to love. Some of her readers will say, about the more adventurous trips, Thank you for taking that trip for me. Whether you are inclined to travel in the same way or whether you prefer to perceive the world from an armchair, travel with Taddy McAllister into the history and culture of some truly fascinating places.
