

We Were Here is a bucketload of ALL THE FEELS...” — New York Times and USA Today bestselling author Julia Kent This is the story of seven college friends, falling in and out of love, and discovering who they are. Set in the early 1990s, a time before the internet, social media, and smart phones, We Were Here is the prequel to Geoducks Are For Lovers. It can be read as a standalone New Adult romance. In the 90s ... texting involved paper and a pen ... our selfies were Polaroids ... our favorite music was on mix tapes. Sex was dangerous, music was raw, and falling in love felt nostalgic. We were friends and lovers. We thought we knew everything. We knew nothing. We were here. We Were Here is the mixed tape of romance! A sweet, fun and sometimes angsty trip through the soundtrack of the 90s. Helena Hunting, New York Times Bestselling Author This story isnt a story. Its a feeling. Its a memory. It is love. It is sadness. It is fear. It is the past. It is the future. Brittany, Goodreads Reviewer
