

The Nearly Complete Works of Donald Harington Volume 2

Donald Harington is one of the finest, and yet least known, American novelists. Volume 2 of this definitive collection of Harington's novels includes a new foreword by Ron Rash, the author of The Cove, and an Introduction by Peter Straub, the bestselling author of many books, including Ghost Story and Shadowland. As Ron Rash writes in his Foreword, No oeuvre in American literature, past or present, can equal the combination of joy, humor, and wonder contained in Donald Harington's fifteen novels. He is America's Chaucer. This collection offers readers the opportunity to discover the fictional town of Stay More in the Arkansas Ozarks, the setting of most of Harington's books, and enjoy an underappreciated treasure of American literature. The Nearly Complete Works of Donald Harington includes five complete novels: (1) Ekaterina; (2) Butterfly Weed; (3) When Angels Rest; (4) Thirteen Albatrosses (or, Falling off the Mountain); (5) With.
